

| | | |
|-----------------------------|---|-----|
| Fritz Neugebauer | Preface | 6 |
| Dr. Renate S. Meissner, MSc | Autobiographical Testimonials as Individual Landmarks of Collective Memory | 7 |
| Mag. Dr. Manfred Müller | Life Stories as Textual Memorials | |
| | The Collection of Memories from the Archives of the National Fund of the Republic of Austria for Victims of National Socialism | 13 |
| Jewish stories | | |
| Lizzi Jalkio | Every day is farewell | 20 |
| Edith J. | Now which hand is Jewish and which is Aryan? | 38 |
| Alice Hirschfeld | ... may you be destined for a happy and prosperous future | 46 |
| Peter S. | When will we be able to live again? | 52 |
| Susan Course | It is a good country to which you are headed | 86 |
| Victor Gans | ... how wonderful it is to be free | 90 |
| Eva A. | So, now this flirting is well and truly over ... | 108 |
| Hans Reichenfeld | ... I think I'll play my cello instead | 118 |
| Chava Guez | Back then, in the beautiful city Vienna | 124 |

| | | |
|--|---|-----|
| Kurt Flussmann | Stations of my life | 130 |
| Jenny de Nijs | ... even the greatest love doesn't help | 140 |
| Stories of Viennese Czechs | | |
| Věra Bezečná | 1938 was a year of great suffering for our whole family ... | 166 |
| Deserters' stories | | |
| Richard Wadani | I was a deserter | 168 |
| Kurt Püringer | ... sentenced to death | 171 |
| Fritz Maria Rebhann | ... on the run after undermining military morale | 172 |
| Gottfried A. | ... we didn't want to have anything to do with this war | 174 |
| Stories of the "Righteous" | | |
| Maria Springer | We lived under great pressure | 192 |
| Stories of Jehovah's Witnesses | | |
| Hermine Liska | When they took me away it was terrible | 195 |
| Stories of "Children of Spiegelgrund" | | |
| Anna Maierhofer | The Spiegelgrund Song | 198 |
| Rudolf Karger | I was a child of Spiegelgrund | 200 |
| Stories of Descendants of Victims of Euthanasia | | |
| Maria M. | No one can replace a mother | 207 |
| Stories of Carinthian Slovenes and Partisans | | |
| Bartholomäus O. | I was so terrified, I couldn't speak | 208 |
| Theresia Hafner | It was as if I had lost a brother | 211 |
| Ferdinand Hafner | ... and so I kept quiet when I was questioned | 214 |
| Hemma V. | Suddenly there was only German | 217 |
| Johann Kežar | Our area was called "bandit-land" | 220 |
| Stories of "Asocials" | | |
| Ingeborg R. | For we were asocials | 225 |
| Ludwig W. Adamec | The dignity of work | 228 |
| Franziska Jagerhofer | I only knew work | 236 |
| Stories of Roma und Sinti | | |
| Anton Müller | My number was Z6835 | 238 |
| Adolf Papai | If it had lasted another year, there would have been none of us left | 244 |
| Walpurga Horvath | ... I stayed, I stayed alive | 250 |
| Koloman Baranyai | Today they are taking the Roma away ... | 257 |
| Thanks | | 262 |
| Legal disclosure | | 262 |